

TIFFANY JEWELS AMONG HIS LOOT

Counsel of Tiller, Held for Gem Robbery, Unearths Stolen Diamonds.

BIG DIAMONDS CUT.

Rare Stone That Disappeared from Union Square Believed to Have Been Divided.

(Special to The Evening World.) DAYTON, O., Jan. 3.—The police have arrested Prentice Tiller, the alleged diamond thief, and have recovered diamonds valued at more than $3,000 which he is accused of fraudulently obtaining from the Mermod, Jaccard & King Company and the Tiffany Company in New York.

The valuables were recovered by A.
J. Dwyer, Tiller's counsel, and turned over to the police. They will be held for use in prosecuting Tiller.

No information as to the hiding-place of the gems has been obtained.

Tiller is in jail, charged with using the mail to promote a scheme to defraud.

Tiller's sister, Mrs. Stiles Parker, who was here Saturday to see her brother, was shadowed to her home in Cincinnati, the detectives then searching her home for loot. They found none, and it is certain that Mrs. Stiles is a woman of the highest character and repute.

Robbery Baffled Police.

Few diamond robberies have so baffled the detectives of this city as that committed in the old Tiffany Building, in Union Square, on May 4, 1905. Three large stones were spirited out of the lap-idaries' department between the closing of business on May 4 and the opening of the sales next day.

One of the oldest employees of the firm had been cutting the stones, valued at $35,000, for a necklace ordered by a wealthy man as a present for his wife.
The lady had finished work for the day and had placed the stones within an iron screen which surrounded the scales on the sixth floor of the building.
It was supposed the gems had been put in the safe, but when all the stones were checked up next morning it was discovered that the three were missing. On May 18 the theft was reported to Police Headquarters.

Reward of $10,000.

In a description sent out by the jewelers the diamonds were said to be pear-shaped and weighed approximately 11, 13 and 14 carats. A reward of $10,000 was offered for their recovery.

There is little doubt in the minds of the Pinkertons that the gems, whose hiding-place Tiller has not disclosed are small stones cut from one or more of the pear-shaped diamonds.

Prentice Tiller has a record in almost every State in the Union. He came into prominence in 1894, when he stole $100,000 from the Pacific Express Company in St. Louis. He served time in Jefferson City, Mo., for this crime and was in prison repeatedly for robberies in Louisville, Milwaukee, Chicago, St.
Louis and this city. He has frequently escaped from prison and got out of the old Tomb ten years ago. His last attempt to escape was when he was being taken through the Union Station in Chicago. In April, 1901, to Joliet.

Tiller beat down his guards and ran for several blocks but was recaptured.
Two other prisoners got away.

Tiller is the black sheep of a respectable family. His father was Carter Tiller, a famous Kentucky fight-taker, and later chief of detectives in Louisville, where he died many years ago.

CAT FOUGHT HER TO HARD FINISH

Woman in Hospital as Result of Battle with Her Own Pet.

Mrs. Clara Ledy, wife of William Ledy, an engineer, living on Taylor street, West New Brighton, S. I., is in a serious condition at St. Vincent's Hospital, where she was taken last night after being severely bitten by a cat. It is feared that dangerous symptoms may develop as it is thought the animal was suffering from rabies. Anti-toxin is being administered.

Mrs. Ledy was passing through the kitchen last night, when she heard a couple of cats fighting on the steps.
She went to the door and found a strange black-and-yellow cat mauling her own mouser. She seized a broom and struck at the intruder. Instantly it turned from the mauler and leaped at her throat. Mrs. Ledy screamed and fought desperately against the maddened animal. Again and again she hurled it aside, but each time the brute returned to the attack.

Mrs. Ledy was last weakening when John Legn, a neighbor, heard her cries, and, vaulting a fence, came to her rescue and drove off the cat with a pitchfork. Mrs. Ledy, weak from fright and loss of blood, was carried into the house. She was found to be suffering from, over a dozen, severe wounds in the face, neck and arms.

The entire neighborhood is searching for the animal.

"LOU" MOREWIN DEAD.

Actress Known Here Succumbs Suddenly While in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Jan. 3.—Miss Louisa More-win, a member of the New York theatrical company playing "The Herl to the Sword," died here last night at the Windsor Hotel from lockjaw, the result of a slight injury received by falling down an elevator shaft at Newark, Ohio, a week ago.

KING OF BRUTES BEATS HIS WIFE

Political Pull Released Burly Husband, Who Went Home to Slay Weak Woman.

John O'Keefe, a burly longshoreman, was today held in $1,000 for trial for almost killing his wife, Mary, in two successive beatings administered to her last night. Attacks of the West Side Court, where O'Keefe was arraigned before Magistrate Baker, on seeing the woman in bandages said to-day that it was the most horrible case of wife-beating that had come into that court.

O'Keefe was in court in October for the same offense and was sent to the island for a six months' rest. But though he was, he had a strong political pull and managed to get out yesterday. He wandered into his wife's home, No. 4 Amsterdam avenue, at 6 o'clock last night in an ugly mood and proceeded with little ceremony to take up the beating of his wife where he had left off three months ago.

With a soda water bottle he pounded her over the head, cutting many gashes in her face and scalp. Her cries for help warned O'Keefe to get away, and he escaped just before Policeman O'Connor came in. The cop called an ambulance and Dr. Collin, of Roosevelt Hospital, came and took thirteen stitches in the woman's head. Then they went away, leaving the weak and injured woman alone.

At 10 o'clock the door of the O'Keefe flat burst open and the husband staggered in. He had been inflaming his hatred with fiery Tenth avenue liquor, and from the sullen brute who had come back from prison to beat his wife he was now a raging, murderous beast.
There were no verbal preliminaries.
Reeling toward the cowering woman, O'Keefe kicked her viciously, striking at her the while with any handy weppen. One blow broke her right arm, and the helpless, stricken creature was quivering under the rain of kicks and blows the brutal husband showered on her when Policemen O'Connor, Sager and McKeever, summoned by the wonderful son John, dashed in to the rescue.

A fierce fight followed, for O'Keefe was a big man and full of bad whiskey.
The policemen were none too gentle in subduing him, and he wore a cut under the eye into court to-day. The police said that if they had arrived a little later the woman would have been murdered.

Abroad with the Jimmies.
When Knighthood Was in Flower.

Standard and Copyright Fiction 38c in Half Leather Bindings to Clear.

We have about 1,500 copies which we will sell out at 38c. each. Under ordinary conditions they would be good value at 75c. We sold thousands of them as a great bargain at 50c. and 55c. But they must be cleaned out to make room for a new line. Hence the remarkable price of 38c. Among the titles

The Conqueror.
Uncle Tom's Cabin.
Pickwick Papers.
Pompeii.
First Violin.
Ishmael.
Tale of Two Cities.
Jahnoh.
Count of Monte
Cristo.
Vanity Fair.
Under Two Flags.
Thelma.

Cardinal's Shuff Box.
Box.
Last Days of Pompeii.
Les Miserables.
The Complete
Fables of La Fontaine.
Old Curiosity Shop.
Count of Monte
Cristo.
Vanity Fair.
Under Two Flags.
Thelma.
